

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. DESCRIPTIONS and FIGURES of PETRIFACTIONS found in the Quarries, Gravel Pits, &c. near BATH.
Collected and drawn by JOHN WALCOTT, Esq.

"Nor are those innumerable petrifications, so various in species and structure, to be looked upon as vain curiosities. We find in our mountains, and even in the middle of stones, as it were embalmed, animals, shells, corals, which are not to be found alive in any part of Europe. These alone, were there no other reason, might put us upon looking back into antiquity, and, considering the primitive form of the earth, its increase and metamorphosis."—Of the USE of CURIOSITY. * The remaining unsold copies at Curll's Sale were apparently purchased by Mears:—the Title-page was afterwards cancelled, and another, with the following imprint, substituted: "London: Printed for W. Mears, at the Lamb, without Temple Bar, and J. Hooke, at the Flower de Luce against St. Dunstan's Church, in Fleet Street. MDCCXXIII." In other respects the pretended reprinted Edition of 1723 is in fact the identical publication of 1717, as may be easily proved by comparing the Errors of Paging.

The Volume becoming scarce, it was reprinted some years since upon a thicker and lighter-coloured paper. A new Edition is announced to be published by Subscription, in one large octavo Volume (a few copies on LARGE Paper), embellished with Plates, collated with various Transcripts by the late Rev. Theophilus Buckeridge, M.A. Master of St. John's Hospital in Lichfield, and Rector of Mawthby, Co. Norfolk; with Corrections and Additions by him, and now first published from his MS.; collated also with other copies: and with numerous Additions from the MSS. of Sir Simon Degge, Burton, &c. by the Rev. Tho. Harwood, Author of the History of Lichfield.

The BEAUTIES of WILTSHIRE displayed in statistical, historical, and descriptive Sketches ; interspersed with Anecdotes of the Arts. (By JOHN BRITTON, F.S.A.)
In Two VOLUMES.

WILTSHIRE.

"Hallow'd memento of the Druid age!
Whose mystic plains a Briton's awe engage,
Whose bleating flocks the ample downs o'erspread,
Where structures rude entomb the mighty dead!
Where bounteous Ceres hails the summer's morn,
And pours exhaustless treasures from her horn;
Where princely domes, uprear'd by mimic art,
Enchant the eye, and gratify the heart!
Faintly, O WILTS, my hand essays to trace
The magic splendors of thy varied face;
To snatch from Lethe's stream thy honor'd name,
And sketch thy BEAUTIES on the scroll of Fame."

The MARBLE ANTIQUITIES, The Right Hon^{ble} the Earl of PEMBROKE's, at WILTON, are too many to be Drawn but by several Hands, there being of Statues, Busto's, Bass-Reliev's, and Miscellanies, each relating to a great Variety of Uses, as appears best by a Book that there is digested in a scientifique Method, with instructive Divisions and Illustrations: I have Drawn and Etch'd, in Imitation of Perrier, all the Statues; and to make the Number of my Plates even 70 here are three different Postures of some of the Statues by the famous Sculptor Cleomenes.

They may be had of me CARY CREED, at the Jarr between Cecil and Salisbury Streets in the Strand; and Mr. Prevost the Bookseller near it has some of me, and so may any other. Price 35 Shillings. Anno 1731. Quarto.*

ETCHINGS.

Title-page as above, being a Fac-simile of the Engraver's Hand-writing.

1. Cupid breaking his Bow when he married Psyche, big as Life, by Cleomenes.
2. Queen of y^e Amazons, big as Life, by Cleomenes.
3. Euterpe y^e Muse, big as Life, by Cleomenes.
4. Faunus, big as Life, by Cleomenes.
5. The fore part of the same Faunus.
6. Coloss of Hercules, six Attick Cubits high.
7. Cleopatra and her Son Cæsarian by Julius Cæsar, big as Life.
8. Urania y^e Muse, big as Life, of one of y^e oldest fine Greek Sculptors.

* The original Title-page, which is occasionally met with in some copies, runs thus: "The MARBLE ANTIQUITIES of the Right Hon^{ble} the Earl of PEMBROKE at WILTON are too many to be drawn but by several Hands, there being of Statues, Bustos, Bass-reliev's, and Miscellanies, each relating to a great Variety of Uses, as appears best by a Book that there is digested in a scientifique Method with instructive Divisions and Illustrations. However there has been some grav'd, as appears by that Book: Of the Statues I have drawn and etch'd, in imitation of Perrier, all except 25; more Statues that there are and were drawn by one who had not leisure to do more. Rather than draw againe any of the Statues that he had done, I have etch'd two fine Greek Bass-reliev's to make my Plates even 40.— They may be had of me CARY CREED, at the Jarr, between Cecil and Salisbury Streets in the Strand; and Mr. Prevost the Bookseller near it has some of me, and so may any other Bookseller. Price 20 Shillings. Quarto."

9. The first Equestrian Statue of Marcus Aurelius, which occasioned the Sculptor to be employed in casting the great one on a different Horse at the Capitol.
10. The Sleeping Venus. Greek.
11. Adonis. Greek.
12. Pandora. Greek.
13. The Egyptian Bacchus. Greek.
14. Apollo, with all his three Symbols. Greek.
15. Curtius, Basso-relievo; the Sculptor brought to Rome by Polybius from Corinth.
16. Saturn, Basso-relievo. Greek.
17. A second View of Cupid breaking his Bow when he married Psyche, big as Life, by Cleomenes.
18. A third View of the same Statue.
19. Isis, kneeling, holding Osiris in his Coffin, and Oris about her Neck; harder than Marble of the Iron colour'd Theban, big as Life.
20. Captives supporting y^e Architrave of a Door of y^e Viceroy's Pallace in Ægypt, after Cambyse's conquer'd it. This first has a Diadem.
21. Another Captive without a Diadem, shewing how gracefully the Drapery hangs on them.
22. Jupiter Hammon (Ammon).
23. Attis, Cybeles High Priest, cloathed as a Woman.
24. A Pantheon; Apollo and three Symbols of Neptune, Bacchus and Vertumnus.
25. Sabina, Wife of Adrian.
26. Faustina, Wife of Antoninus Pius.
27. Antinous.—28. Mercury.—29. Flora.
30. Apollo, with a fine Gloss, like old Ivory, so stained in the Earth by some Mineral.
31. Autumnus.
32. Bacchus and the young Silenus.
33. A Naiade; or River Nymph, sleeping on a Bank in Egypt, on which is carv'd an Ibis, &c.
34. A recumbent Figure leaning on a Sea Dog, to represent y^e Mouth of y^e River next y^e Sea.
35. A genteel Figure of Cupid from which Water is furnish'd for a Bathing-place. Found at Puzzoli.
36. The Coloss of Apollo.
37. A Groupe of Hercules dying with Pæas his Friend.
38. A Shepherd; the very Action of his Fingers shews it to be of the finest Greek Sculpture.

39. Bacchus, clad with a whole Skin, much noted for the distinct Manner of fixing the antique Sandal.
40. Saturn seriously considering a Child, not a cruel Spectacle as commonly, eating it ;—very ancient.
41. The Labour of Hercules turning the Course of the River Achelous.
42. The Labour of Hercules, wrestling with Antæus.
43. The foster Father of Paris.
44. Mercury, with all his three Symbols, Wings, Caduceus, and a Purse.
45. Diana of Ephesus ; Head, Hands, and Feet black, the rest white Marble, as described by Pliny.
46. Æsculapius.
47. An antient Priest, with a Phrygian Cap, sacrificing a Hog to Isis.
48. Calliope y^e Muse wth her Symbol y^e Roll in her Hand.
49. Andromeda with the Fish, and on y^e Rock.
50. Meleager.
51. Pomona in a Chair on a Cushion ; the Sculpture appears as naturally soft.
52. Janus, found in the Ruins of y^e Temple of Janus.
53. A very antient Phrygian Cupid before they added Wings, for the old Greek Epigram blames those who added Wings ; his Hands are tied to a Tree : y^e Sculpture shows most naturally his Concern.
54. Hercules killing the Serpent.
55. A Boy looking earnestly to catch something on the Ground.
56. A Boy dancing and playing on Musick.
57. A Cupid holding the Golden Apple.
58. A young Bacchus smiling, with Grapes growing up a Tree.
59. Orpheus.
60. Cæsar's Father when Governour in Ægypt ; the same size and sculptor with M. Anthony, which has a Crocodile.
61. M. Anthony, when in Ægypt, having a Crocodile at his Feet.
62. Livia, Wife of Augustus, bigger then the Life, sitting in a Chair.
63. Manlia Scantilla, Wife of Julianus, bigger then y^e Life, sitting.
64. Didia Clara, Daughter to Julian and Scantilla, bigger then the Life, sitting.
65. Ceres both with a Poppy and a Cornucopia.
66. The Column of Ægyptian Granite, y^e Shaft of one Piece.

Y^e Earl of Arundel brought it from y^e Ruins before y^e Temple of Venus at Rome, where Julius Cæsar had set it up, having first brought it from a Temple of Venus in Ægypt.

67. Cupid lying asleep in a very easy posture.
68. A Groupe of Greek Sculpture, very remarkable for the seven Pipes, and the attentiveness of Cupid both with his Countenance and Fingers at the playing of the other Boy.
69. Morpheus, the God of Sleep, with Poppys of Touch-stone : it lies on white Marble.
70. Venus very genteelly leaning with a Vase.

Many of the Marble Antiquities of the Right Hon^{ble} the Earl of Pembroke's at Wilton, having been drawn by me Cary Creed, and etch'd in imitation of Perrier, I have been advised by my Friends to publish y^e following sixteen :

The first four by Cleomenes were a Present from y^e Pope to Cardinal Richlieu.

1. Cupid breaking his Bow when he married Psyche, big as Life, by Cleomenes.
2. Queen of the Amazons, big as Life, by Cleomenes.
3. Euterpe the Muse, big as Life, by Cleomenes.
4. Faunus, big as Life, by Cleomenes.
5. The fore part of the same Faunus, by Cleomenes.
6. Coloss of Hercules, six Attick Cubits high.
7. Cleopatra and her Son Cæsarion by Julius Cæsar, big as Life.
8. Urania the Muse, big as Life, of one of y^e oldest fine Greek Sculptors.
9. The first Equestrian Statue of Marcus Aurelius, which occasioned y^e Sculptor to be employed in casting y^e great one on a different Horse at y^e Capitol.

The following are less then Life, also of the finest Greek Work :

10. The Sleeping Venus. Greek.
11. Adonis. Greek.
12. Pandora. Greek.
13. The Egyptian Bacchus. Greek.
14. Apollo with all his three Symbols. Greek.

15. Curtius, Basso-relievo, the Sculptor brought to Rome by Polybius from Corinth.
16. Saturn, Basso-relievo. Greek.

They may be had of the Author at the Jarr, between Cecil and Salisbury Streets in the Strand; Mr. Prevost the Bookseller near it has some of him, and so may any other Bookseller. Price 6 Shillings.

The HISTORY and ANTIQUITIES of the ABBEY and BOROUGH of EVESHAM; compiled chiefly from MSS. in the British Museum. By WILLIAM TINDAL, M.A. late Fellow of Trinity College, Oxon.

"Lo! desolate the seat of ancient piety.—

The rugged walls, th'unjointed stones confess

The iron tooth of time; the half-sunk arch,

The weight of whelming years.—On Avon's brink,

Reflected from the pure sky-tinctur'd wave,

A sacred, solitary scene it forms." UNPUBLISHED POEM.

" In nature's bounty rich,
In herbs, and fruits, whatever greens the spring,
When Heaven descends in showers, or bends the bough,
When summer reddens, and when autumn beams,
Or bleating mountains, or the chide of streams,

* * * * *
The fragrant stores, the wide projected heaps
Of apples, which the lusty-handed year,
Innumerable, o'er the blushing orchard shakes,
A various spirit, fresh, delicious, keen,
Dwells in their gelid pores, and active points,
The piercing cider for the thirsty tongue." THOMSON.

XX.

The most delectable, scriptural, and pious HISTORY of the famous and magnificent GREAT EASTERN WINDOW (according to beautiful Portraitsures) in ST. PETER'S CATHEDRAL, YORK. Previous thereto is a remarkable Account how the ancient Churches were differently erected by two famous Kings; the present built by five excellent Archbishops, one extraordinary.

Bishop, with others, the Names of sepulchred Personages, and important Affairs worthy remembrance. A Book which might be styl'd the History of Histories; succinctly treated of, in Three Parts.

- I. Of the Coelestial Hierarchy in refulgent Glory; with Patriarchs, Prophets, Evangelists, Apostles, Saints, and Martyrs; likewise of their holy Living and Dying.
- II. The glorious Manner of the Creation; the Antediluvian State of Nature; Noah's Ark; Erection of Babel; King Melchisedek's Reception of Abram; Isaac blessing Jacob; Moses providentially found by Princess Merisia; his Meeting with Aaron, and appearing before the Throne of her Royal Father; Joseph and his Brethren receiving the patriarchal Benediction; the sudden Immersion of the Egyptian Monarch with his Host in the Red Sea; the Death of Samson, Fall of Goliath, and Absalom's Suspension.
- III. The Revelation of St. John agreeable to the Predictions of Daniel, not only concerning the mighty Empires of Assyrians, Medes, Persians, &c. but the spiritual Kingdom of our Redeemer Christ Jesus, even to his tremendous Appearance at the most solemn Tribunal of Judgment.

Likewise is added a Chronological Account of some eminent Personages therein depicted, anciently remarkable for their Learning, Virtue, and Piety: By THOMAS GENT, Printer, Æt. 70, A. C. MDCCLXII.

"..... Si quid novisti rectius istis, Candidus imperti; si non, his utere mecum." HOR.

"City, renown'd! if better's known, proclaim:
If not, pray this peruse, and spare to blame.
Spare me in age, who lov'd you from my youth;
And let my humble style be skreen'd by truth.
Much as you can, conserve this work of mine!
At least, let fame still live, endeavoring thine.
Since 'tis for you I write—like, done by me,
When none was extant, YORK's fair history;
That bless'd as them by those deserving praise,
I may with grateful pray'rs conclude my days.
And may that kindness, which like rivers flow,
Yield heav'nly life for those you save below."

Impressed for the Author, in St. Peter's Gate. Octavo.

Annales Regioduni Hullini: or, The HISTORY of the Royal and Beautiful TOWN of KINGSTON-UPON-HULL,

From the Original of it, thro' the Means of its illustrious Founder King Edward the First, who (being pleas'd with its beautiful Situation whilst hunting with his Nobles on the pleasant Banks of the River) erected the Town Anno Dom. 1296; and from that remarkable Æra the Vicissitudes of it are display'd till this present Year, 1735. In which are included all the most remarkable Transactions, Ecclesiastical, Civil, and Military; the Erection of Churches, Convents, and Monasteries; with the Names of their Founders and Benefactors: also a succinct Relation of the De la Pole's Family, from the first Mayor of that Name to his Successors, who were advanc'd to be Earls and Dukes of Suffolk.—The Monuments, Inscriptions, &c. in the Churches of Holy Trinity and St. Mary.
The Names of the Mayors, Sheriffs, and Chamberlains, with what remarkable Accidents have befallen some of them in the course of their Lives; interspers'd with a Compendium of British History, especially what alludes to the Civil Wars (for the better Illustration of such Things as most particularly concern'd the Town in those troublesome Times,) and since then, with regard to the Revolution. As likewise various Curiosities in Antiquity,
History, Travels, &c.; also a necessary and compleat
Index to the whole. Together with several Letters, containing some Accounts of the Antiquities of BRIDLING-TON, SCARBOROUGH, WHITBY, &c. for the Entertainment of the curious Travellers who visit the North East Parts of Yorkshire. Adorned with Cuts. Faithfully collected by THOMAS GENT, Compiler of the History of York, and the most remarkable Places of that large County.

A PROSPECT from BARROW HILL, near Rocester, in Staffordshire. (By DANIEL ASTLE*.)

“Wide and undetermined prospects are as pleasing to the fancy, as speculations of eternity or infinitude are to the understanding. But if there be a beauty or uncommonness joined with this grandeur, as in a spacious landscape, cut out into rivers, woods, rocks, and meadows, the pleasure still grows upon us, as it arises from more than a single principle.”—SPECTATOR, No. 412.
